Otsego County Library Director's Report April 18, 2023

 Our Blue Cross Blue Shield 2023-24 renewal information. The increase is a very moderate .91%. Even with the increase, we are well below the 2019 costs.

Year of Coverage	Number of People	Yearly Costs
	Covered
July 2019	5	$59,436
July 2020	3	$30,646
July 2021	3	$21,622
July 2022	4	$29,567
July 2023	4	$30,306

 Lesa has received an inquiry regarding the Library's vacant land. She will share more at the meeting.

 We have 14 authors registered to attend the Local Author Fair, including Commissioner Jon Turnbull and the author of a number of wonderful Michigan Lighthouse books, Dianna Stampfler.

- No further communication has been received regarding the spending of 2022 funds.
- I was in touch the MSP Gaylord Post F. Lt. Carl Rothenberger regarding our draft active shooter policy. He said he didn't have a problem with us using the State Police parking lot next to Wilbur's auto supply for rallying point, but that we need to cognizant of the fact that we need not to get in state police's way as they will be heading towards our building as we running out. I said I would show him the policy again before it's approved. I also made an initial contact with Matt Spear who is a retired state police trooper that provides active shooter trainings. I am hoping he can provide some instruction at our next all staff meeting which I have scheduled for May 11th after the library closes.

• Audrie Fournier, our new youth services coordinator, proposed purchasing gaming consoles for our community's Teens to our Friends group. The Friends pledged $3,000, and we received another $1,000 from a private donor towards modernizing our Teen programming.

 Since distributing our website RFP, I have received emails from a few companies who work with libraries, so I am hopeful that we will have proposals to review at the next meeting.

• Audrie and Jasmin, our youth staff, will have a table at the annual Fun Fair that is held at the Gaylord Middle School, Saturday, April 22nd from 10 am to 2 pm. PoWeR! Book Bags is providing books for us to distribute, and children will be making seed bombs in honor of Earth Day.

 The same day as the Family Fun Fair, the Historical Society is holding a celebration at their museum in honor of Claude Shannon's birthday. I've included the promotional graphic in your packet.

- Public Services Librarian, Mariah and I will have an informational table at the Emergency Preparedness Community Expo on Thursday, May 18th from 3:30 to 5:30 pm. This event is in honor of the 5/20/22 tornado anniversary. We will be offering books, library cards and information about all the Library's services.
- Staff members, Audrie, Jasmin and Rita provided a craft and free books at the Vanderbilt Schools Title I night. The picture to the left shows a child with their complete craft at that event. Audrie also beganoffering a monthly story hour to children at the Vanderbilt School.
- We only received one RFP for lawn service by our April 5th deadline. I have included the proposal from Total Lawn Care in my packet.

Respectfully submitted,
